Report on History of Social Contribution, Educational Excellence, and Community Engagement for Green Campus

The Shri Shahu Shikshan Prasarak Mandal, established in 1942, is an institution with a rich history of social contributions and educational endeavors. This report aims to shed light on the organization and its notable contributions, primarily focusing on the Late H. G. Kharade College of Education in Kolhapur.

Founding and Leadership:

The organization was founded in 1942, and its chairman, the late Sakharambapu Kharade, played a pivotal role in both the institution's leadership and in the Kolhapur city's administration, having served as a corporator and mayor. His extensive social connections and contributions have left a lasting impact on the organization.

Educational Endeavors:

The Late H. G. Alias B.G. Kharade College of Education was established in 1984, and it has since been instrumental in shaping the future of countless students. To date, approximately 3800 students have graduated from college, many of whom have become teachers, contributing to the education sector.

Community Engagement:

The institution has a deep-rooted connection with the community it serves. This connection has translated into generous donations from the local community, fostering a culture of tree planting and care on the college campus. The contributions from the community have played a significant role in the greenery and overall environmental development of the college.

The Culture of Sustainability:

The college's slogan, "Facta Non Verba," embodies its commitment to action over words. This ethos is reflected in its green campus, nurtured economically through community support. The college's focus on environmental development and care is a testament to the impact of social engagement.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the Shri Shahu Shikshan Prasarak Mandal and the Late H. G. Kharade College of Education in Kolhapur have a rich history of social contribution, educational excellence, and community engagement. The organization's commitment to environmental sustainability through community support and the "Facta Non Verba" ethos is truly commendable.

Sincerely,

C.G.Khankde
